Ask me why? (why...)

I think this is most unusual, how can I even try to explain.

Why tonight, I feel like clubbing, to the early hours of the day

Cause I would so normally do this kind of thing

I would so normally do this kind of thing

Ask me when? (when...)

It started some months ago, and ever since then, the past wouldn't last

So for now, I feel I'm clubbing

At least I know I'm gonna feel . . . cause

I would so normally do this kind of thing.

I would so normally do this kind of thing.

If people say I'm crazy, I tell them that its true

So let them watch with amazement..

'Say its jus a little phase that he is really going through,

Take a little appreciation in what he's trying to do

Cause this is such a thing he would so normally do

He would so normally do this kind of thing.'

I would so normally do this kind of ...

I would so normally do this kind of ...

I would so normally do this kind of thing
