

Brettell, Kisses Without You

Kisses Without You

See the sunset in her eyes
Feel the covers upon my side
Our date, Pour Vu

Seven hands of little faith
In a lounge of broken mates, she waits
And she waits, without me
Cause this is without me
This is without me

Through the days I drift away
I gave it all, but she wanted more
And she may, be Morn Tuned
Kisses without you
This is without you
I cant cope, kisses without you

And you gave it all away
And she gave it all away
And you did
She did, she just gave it all away
My mind is kind
My body makes me what I am worth

With nothing to gain and
Nothing else to choose.
And I wish you never said
And I wish she never said
And I wish, and I wish
She just gave it all away

Kisses without you
This is without you
I cant cope, kisses without you

Kisses without you
This is without you (I know)
I cant cope, kisses without you
Kisses without you.
