

Brettell, Mad

Its mad its mad
To be liking some one else
When you are liking me and
She wants to be with me and
Her best friend in luv with me
But you know as well as I do
I don't want to be with anyone else but you
But you know as well as I do
I cant think of anyone else but you
All the time . . . All my life

I'll have every reason on earth to be 'mad'
If I lost the only girl I'll ever have Everyone in their life should have that
Special some one
It just so happens mine is nowhere to be found
Its mad, its mad
