

Brettell, Outside

Sing high in a lighten manor
You learn in a hour
See you learn to win
Move in a rock way sight
You learn to write rain clouds like to sin

Team in a winning line
Sing a nursery rhyme
Freeman starts to fail
There is a dreadful face
I really thought, you read my mail

And if you thought
That I've been choosing that day
Its because shes almost sober
And if you thought
That this song makes no sense
Its because your narrow minded

Don't trust him
'Outside'
If you believe him
Don't keep it all Outside

Some words, in a bright blue sky
You had to lie, something isn't right

Singing from a mansion house, in the singing tone
Seeing through the fears
In of this whiten line, you move in time
You never reach the end

Yes, a two story town
And the rain falls down
Oceans overflow

And if you thought
That I've been choosing that day
Its because shes almost sober
And if you thought
That this song makes no sense
Its because your narrow minded

Don't trust him
'Outside'
If you believe him
Don't keep it all Outside
