

Brettell, Unite

If I were a candle
You'd be my flame,
If I were a celeb
You'd be my fame.

I live for your embrace
And to see your beautiful face.

Ill never let you go
Even when things get rough,
Ill be there for you,
When life gets tough

You're always there to hold my hand
You're great - you always understand.

Together we should unite,
Ill never loose you,
Not without a fight.
