

Brian Jonestown Massacre, Free And Easy, Take

Early in the morning
I went out walking in the rain
Hoping it would cleanse me
Of this deep and awful pain
I'm feeling

Free and easy
Feeling easy while I can
'Cause I've got no expectations, darlin'
Of loving anyone again

Half way through the evening
Just before you ran away
I could tell that you was leaving
But the words you could not say
You're feeling

Free and easy
Feeling easy while you can
'Cause you've got no expectations, honey
Loving anyone again

No you got no expectations, darlin'
Loving anyone again

(And you got no expectations)
