

Brian Jonestown Massacre, Maryanne

Maryanne

I never told you I loved you though

The way I am

I could not let it show

Your eyes so fine

Their brightness shines

It spins me in circles

I hope and I pray

I live to the day

That I can tell you that

I love you

You're eyes so fine

Their brightness shines

it spins me in circles

I hope and I pray

I live to the day

That I can tell you that

I love you

Love love love love love la la la la love love love love love love love la

La la la love love love love love love love hey hey

So I can tell you I love you
