Brian Jonestown Massacre, Monkey Puzzle

Somebody help me, help me get that girl cause
I know that I need her, I know that I need her

There's nobody sweeter in the whole wide world
I'm dying to meet her, I'm dying to meet her

'Cause when I see her and she looks so fine
I can't give up till I know she's mine, yeah

Oh Lord, can you help me, could you tell me her name, 'cause
I know that I need her, I know that I need her

I'm somebody tryin', tryin' to play the game, 'cause
I know that I need her, I'm dyin' to greet her

I think about almost her every night
To live without her well it wouldn't be right

When I see her, yeah she looks so fine
I can't give up till I know she's mine, yeah
