

Brian Jonestown Massacre, Oh Lord

Oh Lord you know it ain't right,
To live my life this way
I gotta stay up every night and feel this feeling till it goes away

You know I had my crime
And I paid my dues
I've seen the best of times
I had the best of friends
I'm pretty all to do

But now I've seen the light
I'm gonna show it to you
You gotta lay right down
You gotta close your eyes
You'll never flow right though you

'Cause I, I believe in my soul
And I always wanna feel this way so honey let the good times roll

Oh baby all night long I've been sitting beer drinking
How come it took so long
For me to change my mind
Don't know what I was thinking

But now I've seen the light
I'm wanna keep it to you
You gotta lay right down
You gotta close your eyes
You gotta let me heal you

'Cause I, I believe in my soul
And I always wanna feel this way so honey let the good times roll
