

Brian Jonestown Massacre, Wasting Away the kids today they got nothing to say they got nothing to say because they taught

'em that way they want to watch them grow old put them in their graves till their gone

they mess with their hearts and then they mess with their minds and they plug up their ears and they make em go blind till they walk down the street and they can't tell what time it is you see em standing in line you watch em going insane because they wasting their time while they waiting in vain is this the way it should be you were born to be free so why you wasting away why you wasting away teachers today they got nothing to say

they only do what they told so they can get their pay and go home

they walk down the street with their hearts in their hands they grow up to fast and they can't understand what its like to be a woman or maybe a man
because its wrong
