

Brian Littrell, I'm Alive

I lived a lot of life
I caught a dream or two
It's been a sweet ride

But I've faced my share of nights
Searched like we all do
Looking inside

Now I'm standing here
'Cause You've made it clear

This heart inside me beats because
You loved enough to take my cross
I'm alive
You gave Your life to shatter death
So even after my last breath
I'm alive

I'm finally wide awake
I'm finished being known
It's a new day

I feel it on my face
In hope's a midnight sun
That won't fade

I'm bowing down
And I'm crying out

Forever, forevermore
Forever, Lord
