

Brian McKnight, Again

What are u calling me for Thought it was over when u walked out the door Reminding me of the pain
That u caused
In my heart
No im not missing u at all
No im not trying to make u feel small Lately it cuts like a knife
That u think u could walk right back into my life sooo..

(chorus)
You dont have to call
And we dont have a reason to talk
If u want something to say
Then start telling me how you could hurt me that way
'cause it was hell getting over u
Damn you for what yooou put me through
The curtain's closed goodbye the end
'cause i dont think my heart
Will let me love you again

Everything u said was a lie
Right to my face couldnt understand why and how u could do me that way and then walk back in my life
But tell me where were u when i couldnt sleep and where where u when i couldnt eat and where u when i criiiiiied Theres no way i could let u back into my life sooo....

(chorus)
You dont have to call
And we dont have a reason to talk
If u want something to say
Then start telling me how you could hurt me that way
'cause it was hell getting over u
Damn you for what yooou put me through
The curtain's closed goodbye the end
'cause i dont think my heart
Will let me love you again

No we can not find a way
I dont have nothing to say
Baby i gotta be real Guess now u know how it feels
Why are u wasting my time
Guess i been crossing ur mind
Cant let u back in my life
This is goodbyyyyyyye

Repeat chorus
