

Brian McKnight, I Want You Now

lal

Verse 1:

Say you seen too many things
That turned out to be too good to be true
Against your better judgement opened up your heart
Till you found the joke was on you
Lookin out on the rest of our lives
If we were gonna be together or apart
About the only way that I know how to come
Is right straight from my heart.

Chorus:

I want you now
I'll show you how
I can be the man you need me to be
I've been around
But now I've found
That you're the only one for me

verse 2

You say you'll never fall again
 You wont subject yourself to such pain
 If you give me half a chance, i win
 I'll never leave you standin out in the rain
 But if you think that i could look you in the face
 And lie right through my teeth
 Then turn around and walk away
 But cross my heart girl I care for you
 When I look into your eyes and I say

Chorus 2:

I want you now
I'll show you how
I can be the man you need me to be
I've been around
But now I found
That you're the only one for me
I need you so
I can't let go
Gonna be all that I can be
I want you still
I always will Cause you're the only one for me
