

Brian McKnight, Once Again

I can't believe that cupid was a liar
When he shot you and me
We were meant to be
How could I have let
You turn and walk away
Right out of my life
If I'm wrong or right
Can't take another sleepless night

We could never ever be just friends
My heart is in my hands
And I'm ankle deep in sinking sand
I miss you so upon my knees I bend
And pray someday you'll want me back again
I pray someday you'll love me once again

Oh yeah

Got to find a way to get
Your head back on my shoulder
Holdin' back the tears
The future's so unclear
I never meant to hurt
The one I love the most
If I could just rewind the hands of time
To the days I had you here

We could never ever be just friends
My heart is in my hands
And I'm ankle deep in sinking sand
I miss you so upon my knees I bend
And pray someday you'll want me back again
I pray someday you'll love me once again

Doctor can't you give me something
Something to help me ease the pain
Can I come in from the rain

We could never ever be just friends
My heart is in your hands
And I'm ankle deep in sinking sand
I miss you so upon my knees I bend
And pray someday you'll want me back again
And pray someday you'll want me back again
I pray someday you'll love me once again
