Brian Setzer, Nightingale Sang In Berkeley Squai

Written by eric maschwitz/manning sherwin

That certain night
The night we met
There was magic abroad in the air
There were angels dining at the ritz
And a nightingale sang in berkeley square

I may be right I may be wrong But I'm perfectly willing to swear That when you turned and smiled at me A nightingale sang in berkeley square

The moon that lingered over london town Poor puzzled moon he wore a frown How could he know we two were so in love The whole damned world seemed upside down

The streets of town were paved with stars It was such a romantic affair And as we kissed and said goodnight A nightingale sang in berekeley square

How strange it was

How sweet and strange There was never a dream to compare To those hazy crazy nights we met And a nightingale sang in berkeley square

Ah this heart of mine Loud and fast Like a merry-go-round in a fair We would dance cheek to cheek And a nightingale sang in berkeley square

The dawn came staeling up
All gold and blue
To interrupt our rendez-vous
I still remember how you smiled and said
Was that a dream or was it true?

Our homeward step was just as light As the dancing feet of astaire And like an echo far away And a nightingale sang in berkeley square And a nightingale sang in berkeley square

That night in berkeley square.
