

Brides In Bloom, No Excuses

Promised to yourself
Gonna climb the highest mountain
Whatever it takes

Promised to yourself
Gonna climb the highest mountain
& Then you're gonna drop the bomb

But you always say you got no time
No excuses time is now
& It's running out

You allways find the reason why
No excuses got to try, what a perfect lie
So get up on your feet & do your thing

It takes so long just to get where you belong
So long just to get there
So long just to get where you belong
Now would you give it up, give it up...

Promised to yourself
Never gonna stop
Gonna go the whole way

If you should realize
It get's really cold up there, will you say?
I never really wanted to get that high

It takes so long just to get where you belong
So long just to get there
So long just to get where you belong
Now would you give it up, give it up...
