

Bridget Metcalfe, Ready To Catch Him

One glass and I'm on my way
One chance in a million
That you won't change my mind and make me stay
One more time together
If that could be forever

Ready to catch him should he ever fall
Ready to take a chance
Despite not really knowing him that much at all

One glance and I'm on my way
One chance in a million
That he won't change your mind and make you stay

One more time together
I thought I knew you better

Ready to catch him should he ever fall
Ready to take a chance
Despite not really knowing him that much at all

Ready to be there should he ever call
Ready to fall apart
Despite myself I should have left this place before
