

Brighton Rock, Jack Is Back

The call of the wild
Tales told through the age
Yes I live for the night time
Stalking all my prey
Lurking in the shadows
Pretty ladies beware
A kiss without warning
'm your worst nightmare

Jack is back
And 'm waiting round the corner
Jack is back
Attacking without warning

The air's growing colder
Full moon in the sky
Love's the means to my madness
Still they ask me why
I promise not to hurt you
But don't tell me lies
'm the kind of lover
You've waited for all your life

Jack is back
And 'm waiting round the corner
Jack is back
Attacking without warning

(Solo)

Jack is back
And 'm waiting round the corner
Jack is back
Attacking without warning

The thirst of the wild
I may strike any day
I don't know where or when
But I am back to stay
A kiss without warning

Jack is back
And 'm waiting round the corner
Jack is back
Attacking without warning

Jack is back
Jack is back
