

Brigitte Calls Me Baby, Too Easy

When you told me
You know how it ends
Did I believe you?
Did I just pretend?
Are we closer now,
Then we were back then?
Did we end up lost?
Did we end up friends?

If everything was as it seems
Memories wouldn't feel like dreams
If everything was plain to see
Falling in love would be too easy
Falling in love would be too easy
Falling in love would be

Is your heart still there?
Am I welcome there?
Is your childhood home
Lost and overgrown?
Can you make it stop? Can you give me time?
Can I find the words?
Can I just rewind?

If everything was as it seems
Memories wouldn't feel like dreams
If everything was plain to see
Falling in love would be too easy
If everything was as it seems
Memories wouldn't feel like dreams
If everything was plain to see
Falling in love would be too easy

Ohhhhhh Ohhhh Ohhhhhh Ohhh

Everything was as it seemed
Memories would feel like dreams
Everything was plain to see
Falling in love would be too easy
Everything was as it seemed
Memories would feel like dreams
Everything was as it seems
