

Bring Me The Horizon, liMOuslne - ft. AURORA

drag me down some more
get me low like a basement
i hope that you wrote
all your songs for me

on my last nerve burnt out all my veins blue angels trying to sacrifice the shame soul crushing going back around the turn again cut my teeth on a diamond till it's rough feeling good but it's never good enough got a bellyache crawling in my guts again come closer i'll swallow the bile for you don't want closure i'll stitch myself up alone

kiss the ground i walk
i'm a fool for you
in a rut
belted up in the limousine

hop inside
take a ride to the top
we can brake but we're never gonna stop got a death wish tugging on my sleeves again roll over i'll tickle that spot for you it's not over didn't want to let go

i'm a fool for you
in a rut
belted up
in the limousine
so lock all the doors cos i'm insecure let's get out of here what the fuck you waiting for?

do you like the way your skin crawls? how it makes your body twitch?

sick.
