Bring Me The Horizon, Top 10 staTues tHat CriEc

I guess that some of us
Are just born with tragedy
In our blood
It's just basic chemistry

OR maybe all these open wounds
Is how the light gets into you
Cos I'm starting to realise

No one's gonna come and
Rescue me
I'm drowning in my sleep
The scars have got too deep
And no amount of love could
Set you free
The fight's inside
I'll take myself to hell and back
Tonight we go to war

Someone put a gun
Straight to our hearts
And paint the walls with our love
There's a world of hurt in us

And maybe once we spill our guts
We can stitch ourselves back up
Yeah I'm starting to realise

No one's gonna come and
Rescue me
I'm drowning in my sleep
The scars have got too deep
And no amount of love could
Set you free
The fight's inside
I'll take myself to hell and back
Tonight we go to war

Cos I know
That you're low
But once you hit the bottom
At Least there's nowhere to go but up
Yeah I know
That you're low
But once you hit the bottom

YEAH
The hardest thing you'll ever know
IS there's no love like your own
No there's no love like your own

Cos no one's gonna come and
Rescue me
I'm drowning in my sleep
Set you free
The fight's inside

No one's gonna come and
Rescue me
I'm drowning in my sleep

The scars have got too deep
Set you free
The fight's inside
I'll take myself to hell and back
Tonight we go to war
