

Britney Spears, Baby Boy

Everyday I'm in a daze
Looking for that someone
And everyday I sit and kneel and pray
Oh, sweet love, can I get some?

So why do you desert me, baby boy
I need your love right now
And if you desert me, baby boy
Don't you leave me in your crowd

Yeah yeah yeah

(Spoken:)
Hey, baby, what time are you gonna' get home?
Oh really?
(Sigh) Alright, well...
I'll see you later then
Oh, wait, would you mind getting some, um...
Yeah, when you come home
Yeah, that's it
Love you too
Bye

(Ahhh... ahhh...)

Someday you will see my face
And you will think that you have won
And someday when it's all away
I'll 've just begun

So why did you desert me, baby boy?
I thought that you, you were the one
So if you preferred the other one
She won't bring you the sun
