

Britney Spears, Bombastic Love

I..am here to testify that your the only one i belong to I don't know where to start it turned into an art...not to show the world that it was you you made me realize, not to compromise the fact that you and I should meet

(i know we're gonna get...know we're gonna get get) bombastic love, so fantastic where i'm completely yours and you are mine and its gonna be exactly like..in a movie when we fall in love for the first time now i know why, i feel so insecure i never understood what its good for i gotta make sure the darkness won't stop me again i can't sit and wait any more

you made me realize..not to compromise
(i know we're gonna get..gonna get get) bombastic love, so fantastic where i'm completely yours and you are mine
and its gonna be exactly like in a movie

Its gonna be bombastic love everythings gonna be alright. when i am yours and you are mine its gonna be fantastic love when i wake up everthing is still the same and you don't even know my name

[bom bom]

I know its gonna be:
bombastic love, so fantastic
where i'm completely yours and you are mine
(i know we're gonna get..know we're gonna get get)

bombastic love oh yea i'm completely yours and you are mine and its gonna be exactly like in the movies
