

Britney Spears, Down On The Game

Baby your a player
But I like Players
So Im down for the game
Only if its with you
So lets play each other
Its all good , you can call me a slut
Truth be told baby
I don't mind that
I know youre friends think your too good for me
But just give me this time and I'll prove they're right
Cuz your a player and I'm just in your game
Im easy baby so you can play me
Baby wuts up your out with her again
You should IN me instead of this candle
So cum on over and well get this sh*t started right
Justin left me so now im on the rebound
So cum take advantage of my mood
