Britney Spears, Girls And Boys

Lying in bed, touching my skin Oh God, I wish you weren't sleeping I long for your lips to kiss me again Don't you know my body's aching?

It seems we always have a little price to pay Price to pay I'm Falling in love It all starts, starts to fade

Bad girls and bad little boys Won't last forever But Good girls and good little boys Will make love together

I look at your face as I lie awake Our bodies slowly moving closer My hand on your leg My mouth on its way Oh baby, I'll just turn you over

Seems we always have a little price to pay Price to pay I'm Falling in love It all starts, starts to ache

Bad girls and bad little boys Won't last forever But Good girls and good little boys (boys) Will make love together...

Love together, love together, Love together, love together, Love together...

Do you like this? I like this I want you alright
Do you wanna touch me?
I like this
Can you handle this?
I like this

We're gonna slow it down Just a little bit

I'm lying in bed, touching my skin I just can't take it baby Open your eyes, whisper to me.. Do it again, do it again

Bad girls and bad little boys Won't last forever But Good girls, and good little boys (boys) Will make love together

Bad girls and bad little boys Won't last forever But Good girls, and good little boys (boys) Will make love together

Love together, love together, Love together...

That's good, do you like this?

Yeah, gonna slow it down We'll make love together
