

Britney Spears, My Friend Amanda

Ohh yes....you gotta love it this is a song about my best friend Amanda We were in eighth grade when we started to be best friends we were with each other every weekend go in up to the shopping center and visiting Tony Always laughin at stupid things and go in to all the ball games tryin to find guys....never works out Yes she is my best friend
Yes she is my best friend After this year will be the end never together anymore off to different schools and meetin new people
But I will never have another friend like Amanda
The girl who is like my sister
The girl who is always there for me no matter what yes...
I will n ever have another friend like Amanda
the girl who is like my sister
the girl who is always there for me no matter what I will be here for her whenever she needs no matter what time
yes
no matter what time of the day...
Amanda is a wonderful girl always smilin at somethin she has the best personality and that is why she is my best friend She will be my best friend until the end I am gonna hate it when we say good bye she is a big part of my life now and days and it will be hard to split us apart and it will never happen till it is time to go oh no it will never happen she is the best thing ever
