Britney Spears, Quicksand

I still see your coat hangin' on the door, Never let anybody put one there before My pillow's got your head printed on it Baby, of all the guys you were my favorite

Don't ask, me why I just can't say goodbye No not, tonight No, I just can't say it

[Chorus:] 'Cause I'm gonna hold on Yeah, I'm gonna hold on Baby, gotta keep holdin' on to what we had 'Cause I don't wanna move on So I gotta hold on Baby because you and me are sinking like quicksand Like quicksand, like quicksand Baby because you and me are sinking like quicksand Like quicksand, baby like quicksand Baby because you and me are sinking like quicksand

You came along I didn't know of love But now I know that sometimes it's just not enough I hear your footsteps in my corridor But it is just my heart, it's pounding like before

Wish I, could try But I just can't say goodbye No not, tonight No, I just can't say it

(Chorus)

'Cause the ground is breaking, I can feel it shaking Wish it was that easy, But it's not that easy Gotta hold my hands up, Gotta keep my head up Gotta keep on breathing, Baby even if we're sinking Even if we're sinking Baby even if we're sinking Even if we are sinking

'Cause I just-just gotta-gotta hold (Hold)

(Chorus)

Only got one life to live, We don't even need a piece of sand Only you and me, We need to hold on and hold on and...

Only got one life to live, We don't even need a piece of sand Only you and me, We need to hold on and hold on and hold on And hold on And hold on, and hold on

And hold on, and hold on, and hold on And hold on, and hold on, and hold on And hold on, and hold on, and hold on
