Britney Spears, Rebelion

You'll find it in rebellion You'll finally start breathing They're not believing what they're seeing 'Cause you're rebellion Be wary of others The ones closest to you (oh) The poison they feed you And the voodoo that they do But in rebellion There's a sparkle of truth Don't just stand there Do what you got to do You'll find it in rebellion You'll finally start breathing They're not believing what they're seeing 'Cause you're rebellion You'll find it so compelling With everyone yelling 'Cause your soul, you're not selling 'Cause you're rebellion
