

Britt Nicole, Don't Worry Now

Yeah

Seven years old, you heard me cry

I don't wanna say goodbye

To the only man that I love

My daddy and everything he was

I don't think I can live without you

Dad, I know your breaking in two

With tears running down his face, he says we're gonna make it

We're gonna make it

[CHORUS]

When you feel like you are all alone

Just like your best friend up and gone

Don't worry now

Don't worry now

I've been there yeah, I know how it feels

To wonder if love is even real

Don't worry now

Don't worry now

It's gonna be ok

I've been trying to find a way to understand

When I can't see the picture of God's plan

Why would He let us hurt so bad?

Could anything good come of these feelings that I have?

He loved me more than the sand on beaches

He loved me more than the grass is green

And even though he had to go I always knew his love was part of me

When you feel like you are all alone

Just like your best friend up and gone

Don't worry now

Don't worry now

I've been there yeah, I know how it feels

To wonder if love is even real

Don't worry now

Don't worry now

It's taken so long to let this go

It's taken so long to feel that

Your right here next to me

And I can finally breathe

It's taken so long but now I know

I had to find out on my own

When nothing could convince me

Your love it convinced me

That it's gonna be ok

When you feel like you are all alone

Just like your best friend up and gone

Don't worry now

Don't worry now

I've been there yeah, I know how it feels

To wonder if love is even real

Don't worry now

Don't worry now

It's gonna be

It's gonna be ok
