

Bro'Sis, Ain't That The Way

Aint that the way - aint that the way - aint that the way it goes - believe me cause I know

Aint that the way you try to run away - aint that the foolish game you try to play - baby that aint the way it goes believe me cause I know - you gonna learn the hard way

I heard your message on the phone today - and it hurt me all the things you were sayin
- you sad you need to get away - I wonder what you feel in your mind - what would make you feel that you need the time - to be away from me baby ... (baby)

Asked myself what have I been doing wrong
- so what the hells been going on - are you messin around on me baby (dont mess with me) - still believe that your heart belongs to mine - but if you leave boy im gonna be fine . after all this time why you wanna throw it away

Anint that the way you try to run away - aint
that the foolish game you try to play - baby
know - you gonna learn the hard way - aint that the way you try to make me cry - by puttin me down and tryin to criticize - baby that aint the way it goes believe me cause I know - its time for me to say goodbuy

It hurts me what Im feelin inside - all those years Ive been by your side - I think its time to put things right - I know you feel that you need to make a change - but all youre doin is causing me pain - I should have known it long ago - aint that the way
