

Broadcast, According to No Plan

Oh, and I found myself lost
Looked but nowhere to belong
First status I achieve
Holds nothing I believe
And we drift on and among
According to no plan

And I don't know where we are
Can't say what we're affected by
Something has our speed
Leaves us open to defeat
And we drift on and among
According to no plan

First status I achieve
Holds nothing I believe
And we drift on and among
According to no plan
