Broadcast, Winter Now

Snow lies all around There's no sense of doubt You are the only one To keep me sane when all is wrong

Oh my heart Waits in winter now

Deep in every dream Though you're far from me There in the deepest snow I only wanted you to know

Oh my heart Waits in winter now

Falling quietly
There reminding me
Though it's just a dream
You're closer than you've ever been
