

Broadways, New Music

Father

Where have I been?
How did we change?
Caught in this strange new music?
Say,
Was I away too long?

Mother

Just like that tune,
Simple and clear.
I've come to hear
New music.
Why
Why can't you hear the song?

Father
New Music.

Both

His fingers stroke those keys,
And every note says, "please,"
And every chord says, "Turn my way."

Younger Brother

I thought I knew
What love was
But these lovers play

Younger Brother, Father, Mother

New Music!
Haunting me,
And somehow taunting me....
My love was never half as true.
And I ask myself,
Why can't I sing it, too?

Neighborhood Workers, Family

His fingers stroke those keys,
And every note says, "please,"
And every chord says, "Turn my way."

Neighbors, Family

I thought I knew
What love was
But these lovers play
New music!

All Family

Haunting me
And somehow taunting me...
My love was
Never half as true.

Sarah, my life has changed.
Sarah, you've got to see.
Sarah, we've got a son!
Sarah, come down to me...

Sarah

You and your music,
Singing deep in me,
Making nice to me,
Saying something so new...
Changing everything,
Meaning everything,
Calling my heart to you...
All for you, girl
Play that melody.
Your sweet melody
Calling my heart to you!
