

Broder Daniel, We Were Winning (Long Version)

oh when we were seventeen oh life was like a film

when we were seventeen

the sky was always tangerine

we ran through streets at night under starlight

when we were winning

oh wild was the world and wild we burned

we were kings of the streets

not yet beaten by defeats but now it's hard to see through a fog of memories

but I remember

now my friends are unemployed not needed in this world pushed down by this town and always turned down but in dreams at night

they can sometimes recall

when we were heroes

There was a girl that I loved

I have her photograph

It seems long ago

or was it yesterday?

She was a glimpse of life

a life that I missed

the chance I ever got

I thought I saw here today thru a crowd in the street I tried to run up to her and my heart was beating fast but she was already gone she was lost in the crowd but will I see her again in the street or on a bus?
and can it be true
love never really dies
and is there still a chance
the fire never dies

I was out walking yesterday
I passed my old school and I started to think back
but we are walking along the same streets were I was born what have we done to our lives?

we could've been anything we gave it our love for what?

and when I was growing up my mom held a job

at the local school
she used to smell in her mouth as she always used to sing she let her hair down in spring

but she was worned out
she had to quit her job and after 30 years of work now shes got nothing she says she hates her life and her marriage has failed but don't lay down and die pleeease be alive

oh it's in the air at night there's a wind coming in the days dying
oh it's so beautiful there's something happening somewhere I take the bus in to town all I see is laughing
and we are winning

soon I grow older but god knows I haven't lived yet before tonight's the memory let's go out
I'm still young

ahhhhh aaaaahh aaaaaah aaaaaah aaaaahhh aaaaah aaaaaaaaaah

life doesn't wait
