

Brodie, My Day Off

It's 12 o'clock
Hit snooze one more time on the alarm clock
I'll get up soon
But not right now cause it is only noon

I swear I'll get the chance to, clean my room today
There's something in there scaring girls away
I swear I'll get the chance to, go to the grocery store
The only food left is one can of cream corn

Get out of bed
Head for the shower but turn the TV on instead
And I should go
But it's Boot Camp Week on the Mory Povich Show

I swear I'll get the chance to, go out and mow the lawn
Haven't seen the pink flamingos in so long
I swear I'll get the chance to, change the oil in the truck
It's months overdue now but it's

My Day Off
And I'm not motivated
To do much of anything at all
This is my day
To finally get away
From them all (the mall)

I never got the chance to clean my room
To change the oil or go get food
And the grass it never got cut
So What

My next day off I swear I
Won't just waste away
Like I did today
