

Brodiepunk, My Day Off

It's twelve o'clock
Hit snooze one more time on the alarm clock I'll get up soon
But not right now cause it is only noon I swear I'll get a chance to clean my room today there's something in there scaring girls away and i swear i'll get a chance to go to the grocery store the only food left is one can of creamed corn get out of bed could shower but i turn the tv on instead yea i should go but it's poo-tang week on the maury povich show
and i swear i'll get a chance to go out and mow the lawn haven't seen the pink flamingos in so long
and i swear i'll get a chance to change the oil in my truck it's months to much old now but it's my day off
and i'm not motivated
to do much of anything at all this is my day to finally get away from the mall i never got the chance to clean my room to change the oil or go get food and the grass it never got cut so what it's my day off
to do much of anything at all
to do much of anything at all my next day off i swear i won't just waste away like i did today
