

Brodiepunk, Sympathy

Don't you come to me
If you want sympathy
I'm not the one to hold

You told me this would last
But it was over fast
Your story is getting old

You try not to, don't want to, be left alone
I feel your pain but you're bugging me
It's time to open your eyes

Don't look into my eyes
If you don't want to find
I'm not the one to hold

You thought I would be nice
And asked for my advice
Don't do what you've been told

You try not to, don't want to, be left alone
I feel your pain but you're bugging me
It's time to open your eyes

I'm sorry if I don't care
About your boyfriend and the drama involving him
I want nothing to do with that shit
But for some reason I am part of it

So that's the end of this
Hopefully you're not pissed
I'm not the one to hold

I hope you have a blast
Kissing his fucking ass
And being miserable

You try not to, don't want to, be left alone
I feel your pain but you're bugging me
It's time to open your eyes
