

Broken Hearted, Back At The Beginning - Anasta

Here's my story
And I'm keepin' it so...
When I met you I was at a loss for words
That's when I saw you lookin' back at me
Now here's where we are today
I'm afraid that after this moment
We may never see each other again
So hold on tight, you and all others
So you won't wind up saying...

(Chorus)
How life is a road that I've gotta keep walkin'
Love is a river that I'm gonna keep flowing
At the end I wanna wind up back at the beginning
I'll be there when the wind stops blowin'
I'll be there when the grass stops growin'
But at the end I wanna wind up back at the beginning with you

We had stories
We never told anybody

And we knew it was supposed to be you and me
But now I know you're the one I belong to
That I was made for you...

(Chorus)

You know it's been this way
Ever since you walked away
I cry for you every single day
And as you add up the score
I'm coming back for more
Need you in my life

(Chorus 2x)

I'll be there when the wind stops blowin'
I'll be here when you ocme back home and
At the end I wanna wind up back at the beginning with... you
