

Broken Iris, Where Butterflies Never Die

Float on to the painted sky where dreams will be unified as I slip inside
Multiply humanity, harmonize insanity, shedding light of remedy,
Pulling tides of clarity, shattered glass in flower beds,
Humanize inhumane ends.

It's all the same for The Dreamers,

It's all the same... for us...

Float on to the painted sky where dreams will be unified as I slip inside
Where butterflies...

Utilize surrendering, when silence falls, to you it sings,

Sterilize your mentality, compromise your reality,

Restful mind and peaceful eyes,

When sound is gone, then you will find,

It's all the same for The Dreamers,

It's all the same... for us...

Float on to the painted sky where dreams will be unified as I slip inside

Float on to the painted sky where we will be unified as I stand inside

Where butterflies...

Never Die

Will never die

Where butterflies ...
