

Broken Strings, Almost Right

Real people, real stuff,
real emotions and real us.
That's all I ask for
That's all I want,
Little honesty just for us.

To see you in this real light,
Repair the broken trust.
Don't wanna end up diving inside,
Don't wanna see ya hiding tonight.

So much I wanna say and
So much that you don't know.
You'll say I'm to afraid,
Well maybe I don't know.
Just one moment it just isn't enough
To tell you what I want
To unleash the inside.

Got one love and it's my own
I've got one love and I live to hope.
I've got this band and that is all
'cause we live in a prison and we're all alone.

Don't wanna break the night
Don't wanna break the night.
Don't want to end this now.
To end this now.

I'll worship the seeing of you in the light,
I'll be there, almost right.

So much I wanna say and
So much that you don't know.
You'll say I'm to afraid,
Well maybe I don't know.
Just one moment it just isn't enough
To tell you what I want
To unleash the inside.
