

Brokencyde, Disappearing Hearts

I love you.
I love you so much boo.
I can't stop thinking about you,
It kills me.
As soon as the blood splashed across the ceiling,
You ran, forgetting about these yesterday feelings.
These lies, these unforgivable lies.
The truth that's inside of your mind.
You can't find.
You hide from the mistakes you made.
Everything that you've said was incorrectly developed.
Why can't you run away?
Take everything you love!
I always paid for you
Until I fucking go
I'll catch you on, I'll catch you on the other side.
I'll catch you on, I'll catch you on the other side.
I can't believe it,
I was treated like another misery
So now I'm heated
I can't breathe
(I'll catch you on the other side.)
I won't deny it,
I was crying from the things you told me.
Everything you told had made me disa...
Pain-pain-pain-pain-painfully
She intoxicates my inner thoughts
With blades, knives, the ignitions hot.
It's overcooling the things inside my conscious.
And everytime I scream I penetrate the audience.
Where's some peace in my thoughts
But that's over
I'm dead now
And you're the reason I passed over
Why can't you run away?
Take everything you love!
I always paid for you
Until I fucking go
I'll catch you on, I'll catch you on the other side.
I'll catch you on, I'll catch you on the other side.
I can't believe it,
I was treated like another misery
So now I'm heated
I can't breathe
(I'll catch you on the other side.)
I won't deny it,
I was crying from the things you told me.
Everything you told had made me disa...
Find me, I'll fall asleep again
I'll fall asleep again
I'll finally sleep again
You will fall asleep again
I'll finally sleep again
You will fall asleep again
I'll finally sleep again
You will fall asleep again
I can't believe it,
I was treated like another misery
So now I'm heated
I can't breathe
And all the things she said to me
I won't deny it,
I was crying from the things you told me.
Everything you told had made me disappear...
