

Brolle Jr, Die Young

Die young
There's a wreck on highway one
Die young
When your life has just begun

Someone wonders why
You ain't coming home

Die young
By the last rays of the sun
Die young
Whit so many songs unsung

Someone's worried now
Feeling all alone

Oh my baby
Don't cry
Don't cry tonight
Die young
Now the ambulance is gone
Die young someones lover someones son
Somewhere echoing
The ringing of a phone

Oh my baby
Don't cry
Don't cry tonight
Die young
There's a wreck on highway one
Die young
By the last rays of the sun
