Bronski Beat, We Know How It Feels

Truthdare Doubledare
How can they be so cruel,
When they call me names to hurt me,
Exception to the rule
No, they knowing nothing at all

No they don't understand, How I could hold your hand Will they ever understand How I could hold your hand close to me

Oh, we know how it feels Our love is real

I'm a prisoner in this age It won't give in easy They'll have to turn the page Instead of putting you down

Needing a helping hand I'm not so different after all Needing a promised land So we can get along