

Brooke Hogan, All About Me

If you could have heard my heart
You know that it was beating for you ... oh
If you could have read my mind
You know that I was thinking of you ... oh
If you, could have touched my love
Then you know how I felt for you (you you)
But you never had the time

You didn't have to make me cry
In the middle of my birthday party
And if you never told those lies
There'd be no need for your apologies
If you would've touched my soul
You'd still be apart of me(me me)
But We can't twiddle on the tone
So now its just history

Chorus:
And it's not about YOU
(It's not about you)
No it's not about you
(Not about you)
See I gave you all my love
(It was about you)
You had your turn now it's all about me

Please believe its all about me

Boy you should have picked me up
Could have caught me when you saw that I was falling
You never should have been so tough
To answer every time I was calling
(Cling-a-ling-a-ling)
We couldn't communicate
It was like talking to the wall
And now we can't relate
Like I don't know you at all

And it's not about YOU
(It's not about you)
No it's not about you
(It's about you)
See I gave you all my love
(It was about you)
You had your turn now it's all about me

Everyday it gets more clear
The longer that your not here
Now I wake up in a different state
And it's written all over my face
No complications
I'm responsible for me
--I don't have the rest

Chorus
