

Brooke Hogan, One That Got Away

What I gotta do to get it through to you
That I'm the only one who can love you like I do
Seems like I try to get away
Trying almost every day
To find a way to you
But you walk away
You turn your face
It's like when I'm there
You don't know my name
And I'm kind of scared
Cause if I try again
I'm afraid that if I do
I'll never get a chance

(Chorus)
If I come to close would you pull away?
Will you dance too far?
Would you turn away?
If I choose to stay, if I want to go
Would it break your heart?
Would you even know?

Cause it's
It's just too much
Too much for me to even take
It's not enough
Enough for my heart anyway
It's just as tough
It's just as tough for me tonight
And I'll be the one that got away (x2)

I want to satisfy both of your sides
Show you the truth
When you're living a lie
Before you were hurt
I put my life on the line
That's how much you mean to me

I may be crazy, a little confused
But all that really means is I'm crazy for you
Baby you want me, you need me
You really gotta have me
You know I'm waiting here
Ima always make you happy

(Chorus)
If I come to close would you pull away?
Will you dance too far?
Would you turn away?
If I choose to stay if I want to go
Would it break your heart?
Would you even know?

Cause it's
It's just too much
Too much for me to even take
It's not enough
Enough for my heart anyway
It's just as tough
It's just as tough for me tonight
And I'll be the one that got away (x2)

[[Rap]]

Cause it's
It's just too much
Too much for me to even take
It's not enough
Enough for my heart anyway
It's just as tough
It's just as tough for me tonight
And I'll be the one that got away
(repeat until it fades...)
