

Brother Cane, Got No Shame

Pools of pain, surrounding me in, shades of green
But they won't.

Rats and snakes they always try to get the best of me
Never know when the time is right to take the reins
Down the road they'll come to find out anyway
We just like pretendin' that they're everything they're not
I don't want it cause baby I'm thru believin' it and I
But it's too late you know
I don't like it. I don't need it.

Gonna taste the wine cause it's right there in front of me

Got no shame. Well I got no one to blame. All the same
Walk the streets, a carryin' a, heavy load, Hounds of love are comin' so I take a left turn back down
Sister sweet she told me 'bout it, Just can't seem to live without it
Black cat open my eyes forever baby, don't you waste your time

I found shelter, Helter skelter, Back inside me, You won't find me
Got no shame, Well I got no one to blame
Got no shame, All the stakes are high like no blue sky

It's all the same, But you will ne-ver feel it
You know you just like pretendin' that they're everything you're not (SOLO)
I don't like it. I don't need it. I won't take it at a-I-!

All the stakes are high like no blue sky baby-honey
Got no shame, Well I got no one to blame, Got no shame,
Gonna taste the wine cause it's right there in front of me.
Got no shame. Well I got no one to blame. All the same.
You won't find me, never get inside of me
