

Brother Cane, Human After All

(Johnson, Frederiksen)

Here I am alone

How am I holding on

Breathing hardly, need releasing

How am I holding on

Blue sky ends

Rain it clouds my life again, and I know

I'm moving in circles

Nothing can turn me around

Tell everybody

That I must be human after all

All this time is gone

What is right or wrong

One is waiting, two believing

Love is right and wrong

I can't lie here

All I want to feel is right, but I...

I'm moving in circles

Nothing can turn me around

I'm leavin' tomorrow

And I must be human after all
