

Brown, Lonely

I'm seating alone here
Naked walls all round
Cruel silence is my best friend
However it's all I have
I feel so lonely
But it's the same old thing as yesterday
I don't know many things
Everyday I feel burden in my head
Everyday I feel burden in my head
I feel so lonely
I think I'm talkinh to myself
I feel so lonely
Cause nobody want to listen me
I don't know where I'm going
I don't know
Everyday I feel burden in my head
Everyday I feel burden in my head
Where's my place in the universe
Where's my place
Where's my place in the universe
Where's my place
I'm gonna pick up my hope
I'm gonna keep the faith
I'm gonna pick up my hope
I'm gonna keep the faith
Where's my place in the universe
Where is my place
Where is my place
Where is my place
in the universe
