

Brown, Take it all

I'm gonna close my eyes
Take a breath
And start all over
Once again
You can't hold me back
This time.
I'm gonna win this time
Take it all
For no one else
But myself
You can't stop me now
It will be mine.
Just one more step
To get what's mine.
You can't hold me back
this time.
Just one last step
And I will be fine
You can't stop me now
It will be mine.
