

Bruce Aisher feat Richard Salmon, Headlights

Will you still come back
Where the north wind blows
And snow fills the sky
Come with me
Well take this train
Tonight
Headlights coming
Im wasting comin see
I cant hear you
Calling me
Headlights coming
Im wasting
Dont let me go
Headlights coming
Our way
I climbed this hill so high
And the city lights
Are faded away
And you, you have
This love inside
Tonight
Headlights coming
Im wasting comin see
I cant hear you
Calling me
Headlights coming
Im wasting
Dont let me go
Headlights coming
Our way
Headlights coming
Im wasting
Dont let me go
Headlights coming
Our way
And will you still come back?
